

UNITED STATES MISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS
NEW YORK

September 13, 2016

HC-79-16

The United States Mission to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Missions and the Permanent Observer Offices to the United Nations and has the honor to refer to an Accreditations Handbook sent to all eGov account holders in August including the Permanent Missions to the United Nations.

The directives in the Handbook apply specifically to employees of the embassies in Washington and the consulates throughout the United States.

The United States Mission further refers the Permanent Missions and Observer Offices to the statement on page 3 of this handbook under the caption: Overview,

B. Not covered in this document

“For rules specific to employees accredited to (i.e., staff of the Permanent Missions) or employed by the United Nations, please visit the website of the U.S. Mission to the United Nations at <http://usun.state.gov>”.

The United States Mission to the United Nations avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Permanent Missions and Observer Offices to the United Nations the assurances of its highest consideration.
